

Relax and become one with nature at eco-friendly resort

ASITA ECO RESORT RESIDES AMIDST PEACEFUL NATURE. Escape congested city to relax in this eco-friendly resort surrounded with countless pine trees close to enormous tranquil canal, conserving simple yet elegant lifestyle of the Thai people in the upcountry.

Choose between three traditional Thai houses and 20 villas fully decorated with eco-friendly products. Enjoy a private natural swimming pool in front of your room's porch for an ultimate weekend relaxation with deluxe services from an experienced management team.

The resort is decorated with eco-friendly materials and situated in Ampur Mae Klong, Samut Songkram Province, and 5 minutes away from reaching Amphawa district. The city has conserved the local riverside lifestyle while being only 65-km. from Bangkok, you can enjoy being one with nature and learn interesting local culture and lifestyle.

Asita rooms

Villa (Standard and Deluxe) and Thai Deluxe are both 42 m². Interior is fully furnished including bed, working table, and cozy sofa. Decoration emphasizes on space and comfort, using local natural products to help preserve environment. Each room has a view of green trees from inside, spacious bathroom, and separate shower. Connecting room can also be provided upon request. Villa Deluxe has exterior shower and garden. Thai Suite is 60 m², fully decorated in modern Thai with living room and porch to enjoy your peaceful evening sipping your tea and watch fireflies dancing at night.

Included in every room: Air conditioner, LCD television with cable TV, refrigerator with mini bar, coffee/tea with kettle, hair dryer and wireless high speed internet.

Spa by asita

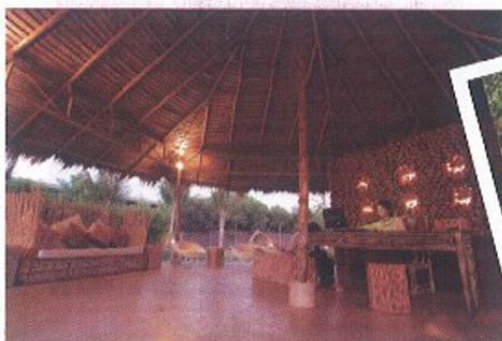

Amidst nature and water, you can relax while treating your skin with our spa treatments ranging from facial, skin, and relaxing massage. All chosen natural products are proven to be high quality and use Thai herbs as main ingredients.

Asita bar

Serving tropical drinks, both Thai and international food. Do not miss to try out our freshly caught seafood from our own marine farm, cooked anyway you like it along with organic vegetables and fruits which are also from our own home grown garden. We ensure that our guests are well catered with healthy food.

Other facilities and services

Outdoor swimming pool, recreational space, tour package, transportation to Mae Klong Market, Pak Tor Train Station, Amphawa Floating Market (5-8 minutes), rental bicycle with a tour guide map, Thai cooking class, and yoga class.

Meeting@asita

Meeting, seminar, engagement, wedding, team building, thank you party, or party for special occasion both in the meeting rooms or outdoor, asita eco resort can arrange your event in your own style in a relaxing atmosphere amidst nature which cannot be found in a common meeting room. We have tools and equipment to cater from 10 to 200 participants, event management team to take care and give you great advices to make your event creative and successful. Escape from ordinary meeting by having your breaks served in a rowing boat delivered to the porch of your meeting room. Surrounded by hundred of shady trees to make your break relaxing and revitalizing and best local chefs to make your lunch and dinner. With space of 16,000 m², sea of pine trees, vast canal in front of the resort, and personal pool in front of every room, many activities can be arranged for your needs.

Tourist attractions

- Amphawa Floating Market · Damnoen Floating Market
- Mac Klong Market · Train Track Market · Dusk Floating Market · Christian Church · Don Hoi Lord · Swamp Tree Planting · Boat trip to study marine life and watch flyflies
- Rama II Park · Visit lynchee garden and coconut factory · Mussel Farm · Boat riding in Gulf of Thailand and squid fishing · Merit making at 9 temples: Wat Bangkung "church in the tree"(unseen Thailand), Wat Petsamut, Wat Bang Ampawhan, Wat Tai Hat, Wat Prathum etc.

Moreover, we grow our own organic vegetable, fruits, herbs as well as having our own seafood farms to serve for breakfast and in the restaurant.

We are fully aware of sustainable development travel as well as preventing global warming, so we have policies and enforcement for our managements and staff in written document to support our strong will. What have we already done and still continue doing.

- Training staff to protect environment
- Use environmental friendly cleaning products
- Support local food and offer healthy menu
- Stop using nearly extinct seafood
- Choose only plants that grow well in our environment
- Use environmental friendly products in guest rooms
- Use gardening products that are environmental friendly
- Grow own organic vegetable and use seafood from own farm
- Control and analyze our energy consumption on monthly basis
- Use low energy consumption light bulbs in public area and guest rooms
- Use central switch in guest rooms
- All electrical devices use low energy consumption
- Use water control valves with shower and faucet
- Use low water consumption toilet (2 buttons)
- Use low water consumption washing machine
- Use water from the river and collect rain for gardening and cleaning
- Separate wastes for recycle including ink cartridge, batteries, papers, bottles, plastics, and metal
- Recycle wastes from the garden
- Encourage guests to separate wastes